Period of Exchange: From 19/06/2024 to 19/11/2024 (5 months)

Brief introduction (max. 1000 characters):

Who are the participants, how did they discover EYE, why did they decide to participate, what were the expected benefits...

Christian Corvaglia, an aspiring entrepreneur from Italy, and the team of Gabriele Aerolite at Connecticlub, a dynamic Maltese organization supporting startups, connected through the Erasmus for Young Entrepreneurs program. Both saw the initiative as a unique opportunity: Christian aimed to refine his skills in strategy and prototyping, while Gabriele sought to benefit from a fresh and technical perspective. The collaboration was designed to combine Christian's technical background with Connecticlub's experience in supporting startups.

Activities undertaken (max. 1000 characters):

Examples, description of the relationship between the two entrepreneurs...

During the program, Christian and Gabriele's team worked together to support local startups. Christian contributed with strategic consulting, marketing suggestions, and the assembly of a 3D printer, which was used to prototype components requested by Connecticlub's clients. The 3D printer enabled the team to offer fast and efficient solutions, adding a new layer of innovation to their services. At the same time, Gabriele & Connecticlub provided Christian with an in-depth introduction to the Maltese entrepreneurial landscape, equipping him with tools to tackle market challenges.

Benefits achieved (max. 1000 characters):

Future prospects of cooperation, skills developed, contacts made...

The collaboration had a significant impact on both parties. Christian gained expertise in strategic consulting, marketing, and advanced use of 3D printing technology, which he plans to leverage in his future entrepreneurial projects. Gabriele, with Christian's technical contributions, was able to enhance its service offering, attracting greater interest from clients. Furthermore, the experience created a lasting professional connection between the two parties, paving the way for potential future collaborations.
