

Relationship number: RLT251880

Period of Exchange: From July 2025 to November 2025 (4 months)

Brief introduction (max. 1000 characters):

The NE decided to take part in the project following the positive experience of a colleague who previously worked at the same clinic. The main goal was to train the NE by the HE in orthopedics, mutually, to introduce a specialist branch such as that of physiotherapy. The HE appreciated and acquired the skills regarding the physiotherapy branch such as complementary service, indeed, this type of plus gave more tools and awareness to the clients, making the NE and HE job more efficient. The comparison between two different work realities, in two different nations, was the collateral bonus.

Activities undertaken (max. 1000 characters):

During the match, were faced various aspects of veterinary medicine between HE and NE, as well as with other members of the clinic, including those related to internal medicine, soft and hard tissue surgery, cardiology, ultrasound, Radiology, Hospital department, infectious diseases department, laboratory clinic, and mostly, the management of the clinic itself.

Benefits achieved (max. 1000 characters):

NE and HE have decided to continue the relationship of collaboration where they will work together, supported by internal and external training courses, to always offer the best possible service.

Quotation regarding the experience:

NE

Livia Guarna, New Entrepreneur

The experience at the Clinique Vétérinaire Des Falaises is extremely positive, it allowed the NE to experience various skills in many different fields of competence, and to connect them to the physiotherapy plan the NE brought to the clinic.

HE

Elia Marini, Host Entrepreneur

Third experience with the Erasmus Young Entrepreneurs program, and it was a success.

This match allowed us to connect with a new entrepreneur who gave us a different point of view about the management of the clinic.
